

Kagawa Memorial Center was built as a community center. The center includes a resource center (for study, research, and developing programs), the Kagawa Museum and archives, Yuai Day Care Center, a café, and Kobe Jesus Band Church.

- 4F Research Center and Archives
- 4F Memorial Hall
- 4F Kobe Jesus Band Church
- 4F Tengokuya (Heaven's) Café
- 4F Kagawa Museum
- 4F Tutoring program for foreign children.
- 3F Classes for children with special needs.
- 2,3F Yuai Day Care
- 2,3F After school programs for elementary children and mentally challenged youth.
- 1F Jesus Band office
- 1F Medical offices (tenants)

Museum

Includes a place for holding seminars, 12 exhibits, special displays, photographs, videos, and picture screens.

- 1 Overall Design
- 2 Work in the Early Days and Community Welfare
- 3 Cooperative Movement
- 4 Labor Movement and "Everyone Can Vote" Movement
- 5 Peasant Farmers' Movement and Mutual Finance Movement
- 6 The Great Kanto Earthquake Restoration and Y.M.C.A.
- 7 Restoring Souls, Restoring Lives
- 8 Peace, Human Rights, Living Together
- 9 Strengthening the Church
- 10 Toyohiko Kagawa's Ministries
- 11 Resources about Toyohiko Kagawa
- 12 Windows to the World